10 sentence summary

In the summer, we received the email that our phones would be locked away. We thought our phones were everything that we needed:

to access our friendships,

to communicate with our parents,

to be entertained.

But we were wrong- we HAVE everything we need.

We have a soccer team that won states hugging and cheering with the trophy.

We have a pig's heart, dissections in Mrs. Schneider's class, though some found really gross.

We have a halloween contest where every person votes for the best costume and then the winner is decided in the most amount of cheers from the students.

It's ONLY about us. We have new fields, new buildings, and most importantly new friendships. When we walk into school on the first day we see new faces and new opportunities. IT'S ONLY EVERYTHING.
