10-Sentence Theme Copy

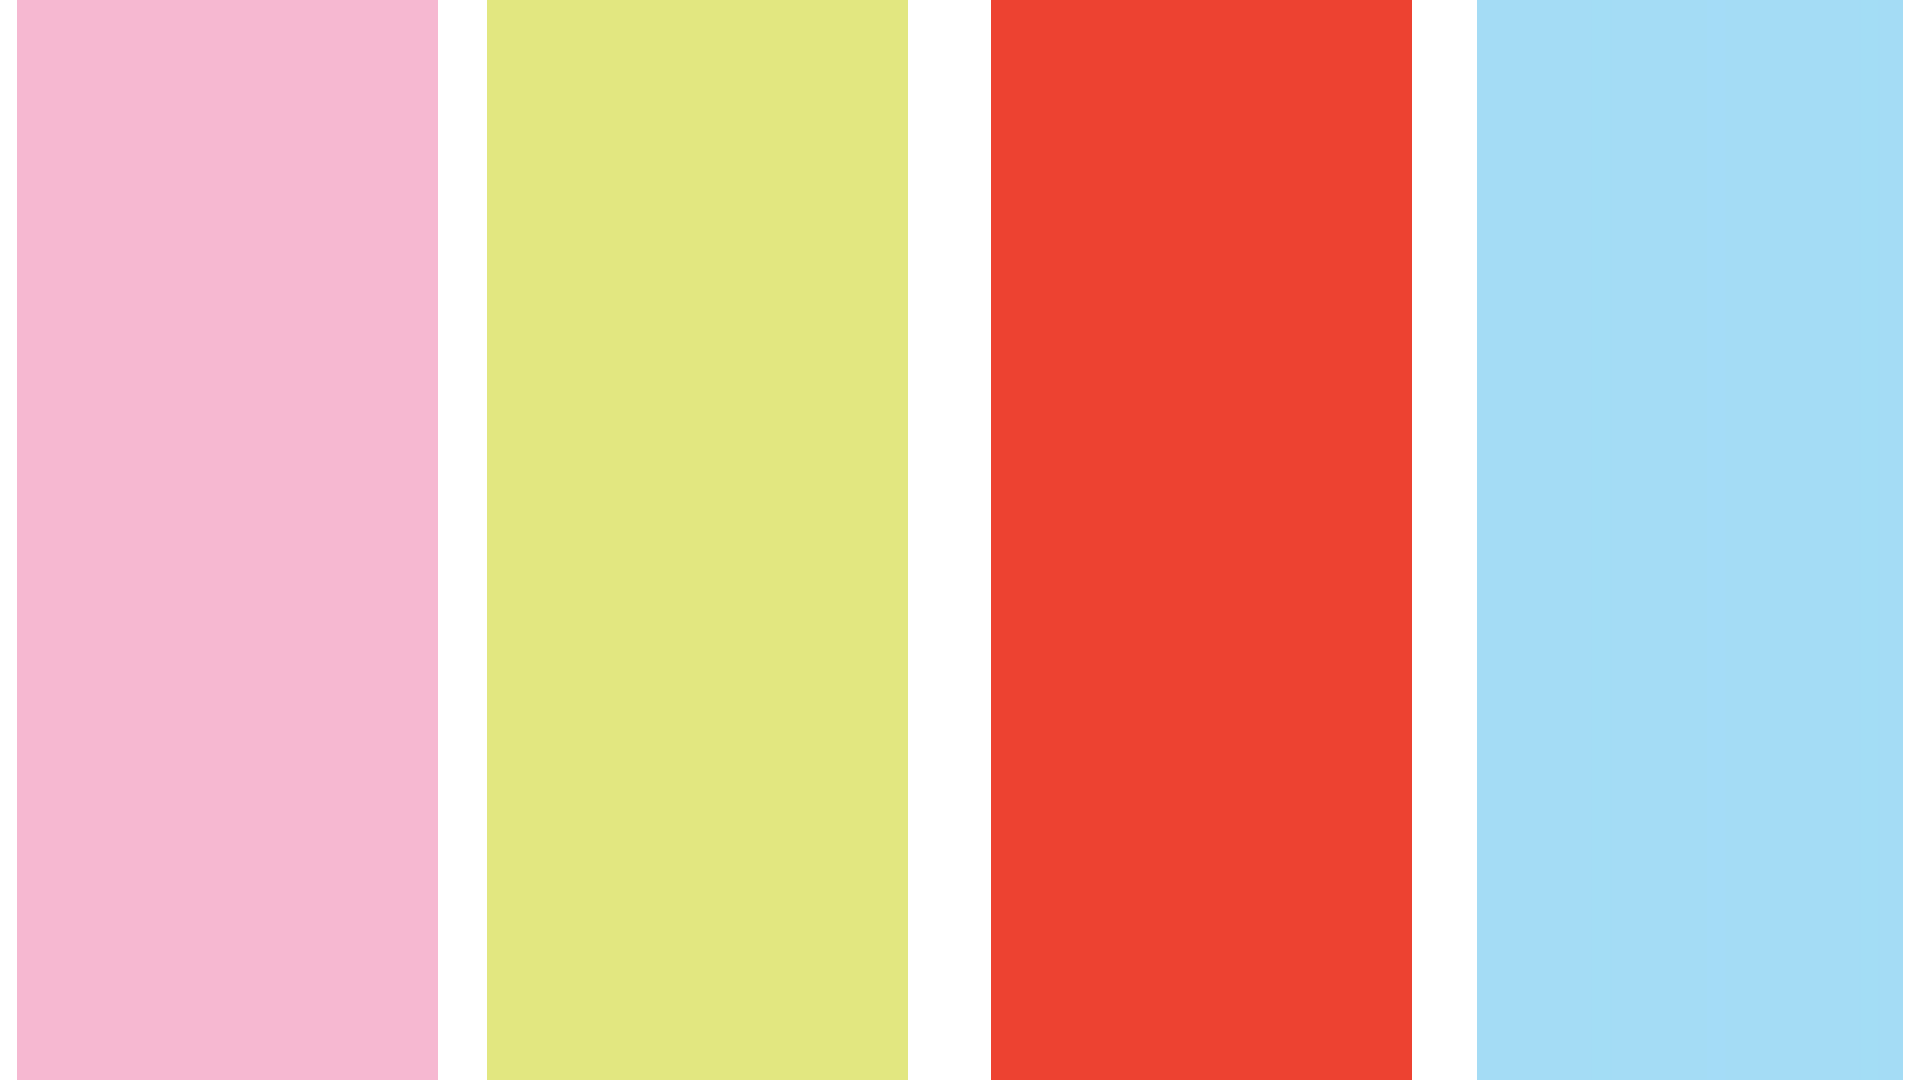

People see us a certain way. Loud, proud, and flashy. They look at our sparkling G-Circle at drop off and our state-of-the-art, stark white Center for Student Life.

They think they know us- but hear us now, loud and clear. You don't know us, not really.

Yeah, we're loud. Screaming and cheering for our friends during the opening football game against Horace O'Bryant. Getting hyped for the homecoming pep rally as the dancers run out onto the floor to a hip hop remix. Going insane for the Halloween costume contest as eighth grader Lars Goodrich pumps up the crowd in his Ice Spice costume.

But let us be clear- There's so much more to us. Seventh grader Ashley Firestone dressed up as the Easter bunny with Beta Club to surprise the children at Chapman Elementary. Bringing our friends a cake pop first thing in the morning in the Star Courtyard for their birthdays. Getting a study group together to spend their tutorial at Ms.Gomez's class to learn about the Civil War and tell her all about our new friends.

Now you know. This is us, loud and clear.
